Programme Outcomes:

- This Mahaparinirvan day teaches us all the relevance of Ambedkar in Present time .
- This relevance explains us that caste based inequality in India is still persist. And this creates the rise of communal polarization and communisation in of politics.
- At present days,It is necessary that Ambedkars vision of constitutional mortality must supersede religious morality to avoid permanant damage to the Indian Constitution.
- This serves as the reminder of his relentless fight against discrimination and his efforts to uplift marginalised communities.
